The 'D/S BERGEN' cover from the dramatic 'Bergen-Hamburg' roundtrip that ended in the collision with the 'D/S NORGE'.

The cover offered here is from the outbound journey from Bergen to Hamburg carried by the 'D/S Bergen' on September 2, 1855. On the 'Bergen's' return journey on September 10, disaster was to strike the ship when the 'D/S Norge' collided with her sister ship at night whilst both ships steaming at full throttle. The 'Norge' sank after an explosion and consequent loss of life. The 'Bergen' was damaged below the waterline although fortunately salvageable after limping back to port.

At our London 'Rarities' sale of May, 2015 we sold the famous cover carried on this fateful journey. The cover offered here would make a wonderful companion piece.

6029 1855: 4 sk. blue, an attractive horizontal strip of four used on 1855 cover from Bergen to Hamburg, margins touched to very fine, unobtrusive file fold through first stamp, all cancelled by 11 bar grid handstamps. The grid was originally struck in error on the fourth stamp in blue, presumably from the 'Bergen' ink pad used for the circular town datestamp. The Postmaster, noticing the error, then applied second strikes of the grid in black in order to correct his original mistake, on all four stamps in the strip. Fine strike of DAMPSKIBET / BERGEN datestamp struck in blue-green ink (2/9) at lower left. Reverse with Danish P.O. in Hamburg arrival cds (4/9) in black. The 'Bergen' collided with the 'Norgen' and sank on the return journey from Hamburg. A remarkable and extremely rare cover. Signed Moldenhauer.
