3366	First Afghan War 1841 (Aug. 5): Second page of an entire letter, written by General Elphinston presumably from the camp outside Kabul, sent to Regents Park, London, there put in Poste Restante, on reverse with light strike of the rare intaglio "AFGHANISTAN / PAID" handstamp (Robson Lowe Asia HS1) in brownish red, dated in manuscript rather indistinctly, on obverse clear oval INDIA handstamp in red, reverse with London arrival datestamp (Oct. 8, 1841). The cover was first charged "2 / 8", this due later on excised as the INDIA and the AFGHANISTAN handstamp indicate payment of postage, the letter bears a handwritten date "5th August 1841". A rare cover that opens well for Exhibit display. Signed Todd AIEP. Note The British attempted twice to establish a cooperative government in Afghanistan under Shah Soojah. During the First Afghan War they occupied Kabul twice, first in August 1841 and after their disastrous withdrawal in November 1841 again in 1842. Although no place of despatch is given here, this cover was therefore sent two days before British forces entered Kabul on August 7, 1842. Provenance: The Afghanistan - Horst Dietrich Grand Prix Collection", David Feldman sale (Nov. 2003), lot 10020. (Photo =  725)	✉	300	(€ 315)

- 3472 1889/91: Handstamped Surcharges, 1 a. on 3 a. on 1887 3 a. green & blue, the September 1890 printing, a wonderful unused example of fine centering and fresh colour, with slightest kiss print on the Siamese numeral, part paper hinge remnant on large part of. A magnificent stamp with a probable printing of just one sheet initially, very few genuine examples recorded (Vincent Polizatto recorded 37 mint and 19 used examples although not all can be guaranteed), this example being comparable in quality to his unused example (Interasia, Hong Kong, Nov 2006, lot 827) and without doubt one of the great rarities of Siamese Classic philately. Cert. Philatelic Association of Thailand (2023) Gi = £ 25'000.
Note: This stamp is from a new find from a general collection in Scandinavia and thus has never previously been offered on the philatelic market. A great rarity, with a block of four and defective single in the Charles Stewart collection, no examples shown in either the Prakaipet Indusophon or Surajit Gongvatana collections.
Note: In the "Descriptive Catalogue of the Postage Stamps of Siam" by the Siam Philatelic Society (1920), this stamp is listed as No. 26 with the comment "is of considerable rarity".

| 3559 | Sperati-Fälschung: Grosses Briefteil mit Rayon I hellblau, breitrandig geschnitten und mit blauer eidg. Raute entwertet mit nebenges. Abgangsstp. "GENEVE 1 SEPT 51 8M" und Ankunftsstp. "CAROUGE 1 SEPT 51 10M". Handstp. SPERATI über dem Eck der Marke, rücks. mit Handstp. "SPERATI REPRODUCTION" der BPA sowie handschr. Signatur.
Bemerkung: Sperati zeigt hier sein postgeschichtliches Wissen. Für diese Orgie in Blau entwertet er mit einer Raute, da die vorliegenden Stücke der wahren Rayon I mit KE fast alle mit einer schwarzen Raute entwertet wurden. Zudem wählt er den richtigen Zeitraum für die Datumsstempel. Die Kreuzeinfassung wurde im August 1851 verwendet, nahe am Beginn des Rautenobligatoriums im September 1851. Chapeau, Monsieur Sperati. | | | |
