Mail to and from Australian States

The Michael Lewin Postal History Collection

Corinthila are delighted to offer the second half of the famous Michael Lewin Collection, featuring Incoming and Outgoing Mail of the Australian States prior to their admission into the Universal Postal Union on October 1, 1891.

We are indeed fortunate and I was personally delighted to meet Michael and view his outstanding collection intact whilst in Melbourne to watch England's cricketers being beaten by the Aussies during the Christmas Test match in 2014.

I am pleased to say that Michael continues with his Stamp and Postal History collecting, studying the Interim period of Palestine and the formation of modern day Israel, besides his other business interests in property and his collections of antique maps and Judaica.

Note: The addressee, James Charles White, had a chequered career in Australia from 1830. He fought a duel against a fellow magistrate and refused to return his opponent's fire as he had been drinking all night and was not 'fair game'. He died on October 28, 1894 in the wreck of the New Zealand bound Steamer 'Wairarapa' which struck Great Barrier Island with the loss of 124 lives.

- 1875 Great Britain 1835 (Oct 1): Convict's entire letter written from Noblestown, Scotland to Hobart Town, Van Diemen's Land and carried privately on the Barque 'Thomas Lawrie' (also illegal!), the letter was mailed on arrival with '2' (pence) charged due for a local letter in manuscript. The entire is addressed to one 'William Cumming, Carpenter, care of Mr. Thos. Hood', both of whom had arrived on Convict Transports: Thomas Hood was convicted in Perth on April 14, 1831 of a felony and was transported for 7 years, sailing on the 'Elizabeth III' in October 7, 1831 he arrived in Hobart on February 14, 1832 with 220 male convicts, all of whom had survived the voyage. Hood was pardoned on March 29, 1838. There is evidence that William Cumming was also a convict, a man of the same name was convicted in Aberdeen in 1830 and transported for 7 years also. He too was sent to Van Diemen's Land and was pardoned in January 1848. The content of the letter is interesting 'I intend to send this letter by Mrs Shaw's sister on the 'Margaret Graham' Bark' and also gives a listing of the length of time letters took to be received (normally about seven months). A fascinating letter. (Photo = 265) 400 (€ 380)
