- 5698 Berber/Barbar 1873/84: Berber / Barbar Post Office, the album page with POSTE EGIZIANE / BARBAR Arabic dated cancellations in black (Stagg 8) on 1872/75 issues (5 items) including superb strike of 1872 1 pi. red dated 1875, block of four 1879 5 pa. brown with central strike in blue and two further 1 pi. rose; also four 'Barbar' Interpostal Seals with one used. (Photo = ) △田 150 (€ 145)
- 5699 Dabroussah 1888: Egypt 5 m. rose-carmine, used example cancelled by bridge type DABROUSSAH bilingual datestamp (June 1890). Unique on a stamp - Smith records just one other example from this Post Office (above Wadi Halfa Camp on the other side of the Nile), used on an Interpostal Seal.
Note: Dabroussah or Dabros. Due to the building of the Aswan High Dam, the town is now submerged under Lake Nasser. (Photo = ) 63 150 (€ 145)
- 5700 Dongola 1880: Cover to London franked by 1879 1 pi. rose tied by POSTE EGIZIANE / DONGOLA arabic dated cds in black (Dec 11), repeated strike alongside at left (Stagg fig. 8/ ESC type V-4). The datestamp had not been cleaned and it appears somewhat fuzzy, the envelope with slight closed tear at right. London arrival cds (Dec 29) on reverse of a rare cover. Signed Todd AIEP. 5740	1885: Egypt 20 para carmine reply stationery card, a used example mailed by a British Officer to England cancelled twice by Egyptian Post Office SOUAKIN datestamps (March 7) in black. Reverse with message '...Everybody is on tenterhooks and great arguments going on as to how we should fight the enemy this time. Some say squares others line formations. I think the former as in the latter I believe we have a great chance of a disaster... Troops and stores in great quantity arriving daily, harbour blocked with ships. I think the first action will come off about 15th to the 20th not before. All Officers in great spirits' and Suez transit cds (March 14). Note: A very prescient card - the forecast fighting took place at Hashin and Temai from the 19th to the 22nd of March, 1885. (Photo =  171)	✉	300	(€ 285)
5741	1885: OHMS deleted envelope used to Fairford, UK via Brindisi franked by Great Britain pair of 1 d. lilacs, one with contemporarily defective corner, and single 1881 ½ d slate blue all tied by BRITISH ARMY POST OFFICE / EGYPT datestamps (code C) in black (April 9). Reverse with Swindon Station and Fairford cds's (April 21). A rare cover. (Photo =  173)	✉	250	(€ 240)

5742	1885: Cover endorsed 'On Active Service, No Stamps Available' mailed to a Mrs. Morris in Manly, New South Wales, struck on despatch with BRITISH ARMY POST OFFICE / EGYPT datestamp (April 14) in black. Framed 'T' marking at left but not taxed, reverse with Sydney cds (May 27) and Manly arrival of the same day. Envelope with faults but a remarkable usage from the New South Wales contingent - they arrived at Suakin on March 29, 1885 and were withdrawn as early as May 17, 1885. Faults as are to be expected but a great rarity of the postal history of the 1884/85 Campaign. (Photo =  173)	✉	1'000	(€ 950)

Sudan 1893 - 1952 Postage Dues

		Gibbons		Start price in CHF	Start price approx. €
5845	1893: Cover from Great Britain underpaid (at triple rate) with single 1 d. lilac used from Aberfeldy (Nov 2), addressed to a member of the 17th Lancers in Cairo. Taxed on despatch with framed 'T' and 65 centimes in manuscript, twice taxed in Cairo with 1888 Postage Due 2 m. green, 4 m. maroon, 1 pi. ultramarine and pair of 2 pi. orange (voided with 'T' marking). Re-addressed to Halfa and reverse with Postage Due 2 m. green, 4 m. maroon and 1 pi. ultramarine (5) all tied by WADI HALFA datestamps (Nov 24). Some faults due to journey, but a marvellous cover bearing the complete set of 1888 Postage Dues. (Photo =  191)	D71+ D72+ D73+ D74	✉	300	(€ 285)
5846	1898: Philatelic cover to Cairo, sent unsealed, franked by authorised usage of Egypt May 1898 provisional Postage Due 3 m. on 2 pi. orange tied by SAWAKIN cds (Aug 14) in black. An unusual curiosity as all other Egyptian adhesives were overprinted for use in the Sudan in 1897. (Photo =  191)	D75	✉	100	(€ 95)
5847	1897 (March 1): Postage Dues, the set of four values overprinted on Egypt, all applied to pages from the 'Natal UPU Specimen' archive book, each neatly handstamped SPECIMEN (Samuel NA-2) in violet. Rare and very fine, a unique set. (Photo =  189)	D1/D4 Spec	△	400	(€ 380)
5848	1897: Postage Due 2 m. green, two horizontal pairs used on 1897 cover, originally mailed within Cairo, with Egypt 1 m. adhesive on reverse tied by Cairo cds (24.VIII.97) and sent at Printed Matter rate, but letter was sealed thus taxed with Egypt Postage Due 4 m. maroon pair but this amount deleted as letter was forwarded on to Wadi Halfa. Taxed again on arrival with 2 m. green pairs tied by 'Wadi Halfa' datestamps (19.IX.97) in black. (Photo =  191)	D1	✉	250	(€ 240)
5849	1897: Provisional Postage Dues, 2 m. green and 4 m. maroon used on 1899 cover sent unpaid from Omdurman to Wadi Halfa Camp with 'Omdurman' datestamp (Nov 27) and framed 'T' marking of despatch. Taxed on arrival at the Soldier's Concession Rate of 6 m. (the 3 m. deficiency was doubled) and tied by Wadi Halfa Camp datestamp (Nov 28). Extremely rare - as far as we can say, the sole recorded Soldier's Concession rate Postage Due cover. (Photo =  191)	D1+ D2	✉	750	(€ 715)

- 5850 1901: Stampless cover mailed from Teh-El-Baroud, Egypt to a Soldier serving at Omdurman struck with cds of despatch and framed 'T' marking, charged on arrival at double the Military concession rate of 3 m., with Sudan 1897 Postage Due 4 m. maroon and vertically bisected example alongside tied by OMDURMAN cds. Reverse with 'Teh-El-Baroud / Caire' TPO cds (Aug 20), Wadi Halfa Camp cds (23/8), Omdurman cds and thence to the 'Dead Letter Office / Sudan' with cachet in blue (Oct 31). Extraordinary cover and extremely rare, just two examples on letter are reported Gi = unpriced/Nile Post = unpriced.

5855	1904: Cover from London franked by 1902 1 d. scarlet (July 13), forwarded from Junior Naval & Military Club in Piccadilly to Cairo, taxed on arrival with 1889 2 m. green and 1 m. ultramarine (July 20), these annulled by 'T' marking in black and the cover forwarded on to Khartoum, eventually finding the addressee in El-Obeid where Sudan 1901 Postage Due 2 m. black & brown and diagonally bisected 20 m. ultramarine & carmine were applied (Aug 24). Reverse with small part flap missing but with Ismailia-Caire TPO and Shellal-Halfa TPO's. A rare and appealing cover, see Gibbons footnote. (Photo =  195)	D5+ D8 var + (D71+ D73)	✉	250	(€ 240)
5856	1912 (Aug 21): Cover from France to Khartoum under-franked by single Sower 25 c. blue, taxed on despatch with triangular 'T' marking and manuscript '0.30' centimes; taxed on arrival with 1901 Postage Due 10 m. green & mauve tied by 'Khartoum' cds (Sept 2). Cover crease away from adhesives, scarce. (Photo =  195)	D7	✉	150	(€ 145)
5857	1901/26: Postage Dues 2 m. black & brown, 4 m. brown & green and 10 m. green & mauve; all three values used on in-coming January 1914 underpaid cover from Mapuca, Goa to Khartoum tied on arrival by 'Khartoum' cds (23.1) in black. The original underpayment was paid in straps totalling 6 reis (one stamp corner fault) and struck alongside with circular 'T' marking and manuscript '36 cents' = 16 milliemes, the amount charged. Despite slight imperfections, a scarce cover. (Photo =  195)	D5+ D6+ D7	✉	200	(€ 190)
5858	1898/1901: De La Rue photographic mock-up Proof for the 10 m. value, using a printed vignette and a montage in two pieces for the frame and for the top inscription. 'Dupl.' in lower left corner and with 'No. 2' and dated 'Nov 18th 98' at top. Crease on card away from the design but a rare and most unusual Proof. (Photo =  193)	D7 Proof	(*)	200	(€ 190)
5859	1927/31: Postage Due 2 m. black & brown and 10 m. green & mauve (2, vastly differing shades and differing buffer bars), all in Imperforate corner marginal blocks of four, printed on watermarked 'Aeroplanes' paper with gum. One with marginal crease but a very scarce trio. (Photo =  193)	D9+ D11 var	✉*	200	(€ 190)

- 5873 1899: Sudan 1 pi. blue postal stationery envelope used to London cancelled by FASHODA bilingual datestamp (10.IX.99) with year date in manuscript. 'Omdurman' transit cds at right (20.IX) and cancelling the stamp area. Reverse with another strike of the FASHODA cds and Alexandria (28.IX) and London (Oct 6) datestamps. Also a further piece showing the Fashoda cds on a 1903 Sudan Postal Service registration slip. Rare.

Note: This rare Post Office was opened at the end of 1899 (this being the earliest recorded use) in response to the 'Fashoda Incident' in which Capt. J. B. Marchand led a small French force to occupy Fashoda. France and Great Britain had been on the brink of war over the occupation but Sir Herbert Kitchener cautiously confronted Marchand who withdrew. The Post Office's name was changed to 'Kodok' in 1903, in order to play down the incident.
