

PRIVATE TREATY

Europe Transit Mail to 1800

An extensive research and study collection of European transit mail from the early 15th to the beginning of the 19th century. A total of over 900 covers document the various postal routes with many cancellations and surcharges from the early days of European postal exchanges across Europe.

The collection covers the entire European continent, mostly in cross-border traffic such as Italy - France or Germany - France with the corresponding border post offices and exchange offices. Another major section concerns postal exchanges with Belgium and Holland as well as Switzerland, Scandinavia, England, Portugal, Spain, Poland, Russia and the Baltic States.

Most of the covers are selected items that have been purchased at auctions or from some of the most internationally renowned collectors. The provenances read like a 'Who's Who' of the great and well-known old postal history collectors: Manfred Jacques, James van der Linden, Hans-Ulrich Sieber and Paolo Vollmeier.

This unique collection with lots of background information, photocopies and the working documents of a proven connoisseur of his subject is for sale here! All the material being offered can be viewed by appointment in our office or via our website www.corinthila.ch.

Reverse with 'France / Ouest 3' cds in black (Oct 13) and framed 'PD' denoting full payment in lieu of an adhesive stamp. Readdressed to Calvados in gold-dusted ink with 'Paris à Caen' TPO cds (March 20, 1871) just a week before the Paris Commune, and charged '3' décimes to pay. Fascinating text: "Keratry enfin tombé des nues en Belgique.. Arrivée de Gambetta à Tours..l désir d'avoir de vos nouvelles me fait confier ce mot à un ballon.." . This rare entire is twinned with a postcard endorsed 'Par Ballon Monté' from Gavre Flandre Orientale addressed to besieged Paris franked by 1865 30 c. brown tied by dotted lozenge with 'Gand' cds adjacent (Nov 11) and 'France / Ouest 3' cds of the same day; with long cross-written message "Je viens d'envoyer à Tours une dépêche de 15 mots.. le service des pigeons maintenant bien organisé pour envoyer des nouvelles à Paris.." . An extraordinary and attractive cover of great scarcity
Note: The Scandinavian contingents began to serve in the Lado Enclave after the International approbation served on King Leopold's behaviour in the Congo had begun to mount in the European press. This resulted in many of the Italians returning home to be replaced by Scandinavian Officers.

1092	1896/1939: A magnificent assembly comprising nearly 60 covers/cards featuring a wide array of "Palace Mail" postmarks, and two very rare telegrams (one sent by the Prince Ferdinand in 1907); predominantly with Sofia types, but also with datestamps from Euxinograd and the extremely rare Tzarska Bistritza (Hitzler cert.), including destinations, interesting endorsements such as the 1913 "Secret Cabinet of His Majesty the King ", registered mail, a good variety of issues with rare examples such as the 1896 Arms issue, and the only travelled cover recorded with bilingual postmark celebrating 60 years of this mail (Hitzler cert.) The collection ends with an interesting section dedicated to the 1964 exile issues. A very fine and rare collection, extremely difficult to duplicate nowadays.	✉	750	(€ 640)
1093	1914/18: Collection comprising 140 covers/cards/money order forms, with Bulgarian intervention in WWI, including censorships, occupations of Serbia, Thracia, Rumania (also with adhesives used/unused and very rare usages in Northern Dobrudja) and Macedonia, including unusual money order forms and remarkable quantity of rare postmarks which deserve inspection, scarce manuscript usages, military mail from the war front, incoming Serbian P.O.W. mail sent from occupied territories, German and Austrian military mail in territories occupied by Bulgaria, French P.O.W. etc. Also a few newspapers and original photographs making up an interesting chapter of Bulgarian Postal History.	✉	750	(€ 640)
1094	Cancellations An extraordinary collection containing some hundreds of postal history items, few fragments and multiples, mounted on exhibition pages housed in six albums, featuring detailed descriptions stating, for each locality, the number of inhabitants (occasionally in various periods) and the date of opening of the corresponding Post Office. The collection comprises localities ranging populations from few dozens to few thousands of inhabitants, including which may be the 90% of the material extant in private hands from the "Small Lion" Issue to the end of WWI. A reference collection of major importance for advanced postal historians of Bulgaria, being nigh on impossible to duplicate.	✉(✉) △田	2'000	(€ 1'700)

Daniele Manin proclaiming the 'Venetian Republic'

1181	1848 (April 6) Castelfranco, Veneto: Entire lettersheet written by the postal clerk headed? Ufficio Postale di C'franco' and "Viva l'italia Unita! Viva la Libertà, Viva Pio IX" addressed to the Authority in Asolo, showing on reverse fine strike of the old Venetian handstamp of Castelfranco with the symbol of San Marco, 50 years after the official usage in the last period of the Ventian Republic (1796/98). Castelfranco together with Marca Trevigiana joined the Daniele Manin's 'Venetian Republic', which was proclaimed on March 22, 1848. Volunteers provided financial resources and more to the patriotic cause. The postal clerk in his patriotic fervor didn't want to use any symbol of Lombardo-Veneto and used this old postmark of the former Republic of Venice. So the postal clerk created by his enthusiastic patriotisme a pre-philatelic rarity. See also attached article written by Franco Rigo. Also Alfredo Banci mentioned the 1848 usage in his handbook under Castelfranco No: 65B. rated +++. An outstanding historic item.		2'500	(€ 2'125)

- 4043 10 bani indigo, a fine unused block of six in this vibrant deep shade (transit Type 4.1.2.4.1.2), second stamp with small hinge thin and horizontal bend on lower three stamps, large part og. An impressive and scarce multiple $\text{se} - \text{e} \text{ s} 40$.
- 4044 10 b. blue, used example with close to fine margins all round, showing clear "Double Transfer" variety, most especially noticeable in BANU at base, lightly cancelled at Bucharest (Nov 1870) in black and thus leaving the variety clear. Minor thins but exceptional and of great scarcity: Heimbüchler records just 5 examples, all used, in the Handbook on page 226. A rarity.

- 4045 10 bani blue, a fine four margined example (transit Type 2), used on 1871 entire letter to Bucharest tied by BRAILA / DIM datestamp (10/2) in black (transit fig. 4/8). Couple of hinge remnants on obverse otherwise a fine and attractive entire.
- 4046 10 bani blue, a fine used example (transit Type 2), tied by CALAFATUL datestamp (16/1) in green (transit fig. 3/1), to 1871 entire letter from Calafat to Braila (Faranga correspondence), not sent by DDSG ship down the Danube but travelling via land. Reverse with CRAIOVA cds (17/1) in green (transit fig. 3/1), BUCURESTI DU'PAMIANI datestamp (20/1) in black (transit fig. 4/1) and Braila cds of receipt (21/1). A few imperfections on reverse but a fine and very rare entire.
- Note: In this and past Romania sales at Corinphila, we have discussed the DDSG ship covers from the Faranga correspondence between Calafat and Braila and attention is drawn to the Gabriel Sassover articles in the London Philatelist on the subject. This is the first cover we have offered where the cover has travelled by the much slower land route (5 days instead of one day), due to the January date of the letter and a frozen Danube: a contemporary report in the 'Irish Times' stating that travel on the Danube was 'impracticable' on the week in question due to the 'exceedingly' rough weather'.*

Reverse with 'Baku' / Moldova' cds of arrival (5/9) struck in blue. The entire with some creasing and hinged for protection at right but a remarkable and rare cover - of the seven registered covers of the first issue bearing a single 54 paraf for the local registered rate (under 8 Postal Stations), one is missing (see Heimbüchler I page 307), one is in a museum (see page 305), three are used ex Baku and thus only two are not cut round: this being the earliest cover recorded with this registered franking. She was married to Count Karl Robert Nesselrode, for forty years foreign minister and a leading European conservative statesman of the Holy Alliance.
