BRITISH STAMPS USED ABROAD

AN INTRODUCTION BY THE REV C S MORTON (*1884, †1947)

The successful triumph of Rowland Hill's scheme of prepaying postage on letters by means of postage stamps soon attracted the attention of our Colonies, many of whom, like Australia, quickly followed suit by issuing their own stamps. Mauritius not only issued her own stamps for use in the island, but wrote in 1849 to England for a supply of higher values to defray packet correspondence.

Some colonies wrote for Imperial labels to be overprinted with the name of the colony, and on learning that this was impossible, they either, like Trinidad, Ceylon, and Barbados had their own postage stamps manufactured in London, or else abandoned the idea on the ground that the cost of the plates would not be defrayed by the amount of correspondence.

Long before the Penny Black had attained the age of one-and-twenty, the demand for a supply of postage stamps had become so insistent from all parts of the world, frequented by Englishmen, that the Postmaster-General had to deal with the matter. Hitherto the official ruling had been:- „Except by soldiers and sailors in Her Majesty's Service, British Postage Stamps are not available for letters coming into the country.“ (The British Postal Guide for 1 March 1856).

This notice continued until 1 April, 1858, when the Postal Guide stated the use of British postage stamps would defray the postage of letters posted in Malta, Gibraltar and Constantinople and the British Colonies in the West Indies.

View of Valetta, Malta, ca. 1860

The following is a summary of the subsequent notices in the British Postal Guides as to the places where British postage stamps could be used.

- 1 July, 1859 Malta, Gibraltar, Constantinople, and British Colonies in the West Indies.
- 1 July, 1860 Malta, Gibraltar, Constantinople, Buenos Aires, Lagos, Fernando Po. and Jamaica.
- 1 Oct, 1860 Malta, Gibraltar, Constantinople, Buenos Aires, Lagos, and Fernando Po.
- 1 July, 1862 Malta, Gibraltar, Constantinople, Cairo, and Suez.

In 1866 the most important Post Office establishments abroad were: Alexandria (£1,870), Panama (£1,731), Malta (£1,445), Gibraltar (£1,150), Constantinople (£990), St. Thomas (£700), and at Suez (£583). The Times, 11 May, 1867. The figures show the annual cost to maintain the office. In and after 1865 the use of British postage stamps was extended to a number of ports in South America, but rarely to other parts of the world.

Post Office in Constantinople

All these places were supplied with distinctive obliterations in alphabetically numerical progressive sequence, which provides an extremely valuable clue as to when British postage stamps were first supplied to a particular Agency.

The numerical obliterations were not supplied after 1881, because the Postal Union objected strongly to the use of these cryptic obliterations which no man could decipher unless he held the key. An obliterator for the stamp showing the name of the place and the date was of more service, and such a date stamp came into use.

The primary Agents of the G.P.O., London, to places overseas were the Postal Surveyors, who inspected and made periodical reports as to the condition of the British Packet Agencies, and incidentally recommended the use of postage stamps at the Agencies, when they considered it advisable to do so. Of these Postal Surveyors, the Surveyor at the West Indies, and (later) at the British Packet Agencies of America, was by far the most important, as ultimately it was left to his opinion as to whether or not British postage stamps should be supplied. For instance, Mr. W. Kains recommended the use of British Postage Stamps in the West Indies. Mr. Kains died in 1859, and was succeeded by Mr. Charles Bennett as the Postal Surveyor, and it is very largely to his exertions that collectors of „Used Abroads“ owe all their South American specimens.

*British Consulate in Greytown with "curious hole cut in the door to receive letters"
(London illustrated News in the 1860ties)*

All these Packet or Postal Office Agents had to make monthly returns, on the special forms provided, stating the stamps sold, the stock left in hand, and the amount of the new stamps received since the last report. With very rare exceptions all the British Postal Agencies were at the Consulates, and the British Consul was the British Postal Agent.

Soldiers and sailors were allowed to use British postage stamps wherever they might be, being constantly supplied with them by relatives in England - a practice which the Postmaster-General strongly encouraged.

In 1869 the various Colonial and Agency Postmasters were circularized that owing to the time occupied in sorting out H.M. mails, the privilege of reduced postage for the letters of soldiers and sailors could no longer be maintained, and all letters would have to come under one scale of postage. This resulted in such an outcry, that the old privilege was speedily restored. In 1889 the general use of British postage stamps to soldiers and sailors was withdrawn, and such letters had to be prepaid by Colonial stamps, or the stamps of the foreign country.

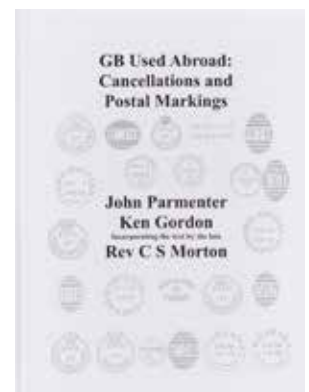

Passengers on board British packets, on seeing the movable letter boxes, naturally imagined that British stamps would suffice in all cases to prepay the postage on letters, but they soon discovered that matters were rather more intricate. For instance, letters posted between Indian ports and Pointe de Galle had to be prepaid by Indian postage stamps, but if posted between Pointe de Galle and Aden they had to bear the postage stamps of Ceylon; and if they bore no postage stamps at all the fine was sixpence plus the ordinary postage. To add to his perplexities the writer found that for letters posted between Aden and Suez only British stamps were accepted, and his stock of Indian were useless, as the use of British stamps was compulsory for the rest of the voyage to England.

The amount of their correspondence was considerable, but exactly how many stamps were supplied to any individual Postal Agency abroad, is a question which I doubt if any one could answer.

The only records that would settle this question beyond all dispute have long since been destroyed. Having to send out to their Agencies postage stamps to the value of thousands of pounds, the G.P.O., London, did, of course, keep a record of the consignments sent out, and the Return Forms made monthly by their Postal Agents, but early in the „eighties“ of the last century all these records were destroyed by the Postal Authorities, on the ground that the transactions were completed and the business so finished that these financial records had no further interest.

A full version of the late Rev C S Morton's text is given in 'GB Used Abroad: Cancellations and Postal Markings' by John Parmenter and Ken Gordon (2016). This is the definitive book on 'GB Used Abroad' and is fully illustrated with handstamps, maps and contemporary engravings as well as featuring colour illustrations of important covers. It also provides rarity and price guides, and is essential reading and reference for all 'GB Used Abroad' enthusiasts.

Updates and additional information are always welcome and are kept under regular review by the authors, who can be contacted by emailing john.parmenter44@gmail.com or gordonken50@gmail.com, or through Karl Louis at Corinphila.

THE 'DUBOIS' COLLECTION

This famous collection, last exhibited in the Court of Honour at 'Ameripex' in New York in May 2016, was built up over a thirty year period as the collector's interests expanded from one area to another with the initial interest in "British Europe" being closely followed by Jamaica (not offered here) and other Caribbean areas; expanded into Crowned Circles, the Crimea, Colonial America and then the general usages of British postage stamps abroad, including on mailboats. In time, the collection grew to include a worldwide selection of postal history, tracing the involvement of the British Post Office in many different countries.

The "Dubois" collection boasts items from the great collections previously formed, especially the most important ones of each generation: E.E.Yates (1939), J.Grant Glassco (1969) and André Bollen (1983). Despite rarity, quality was of paramount importance.

THE KARL LOUIS “CARD INDEX”

ADDED VALUE BY PROOF OF PROVENANCE

Describing Philatelic rarities calls for more than just quoting catalogue numbers and values. Provenance is a philatelic pedigree of former owners from the inception of philately until the present day. Those collections held in the highest esteem by their contemporaries and containing the great rarities, the modern day “Large Gold” exhibits, can be traced back to the collectors who once owned the particular rarity and the auctions where they were sold and changed hands. Frequently, the further back a philatelic pedigree goes, the more coveted the rarity becomes. Provenance is a quality seal. As in Art, Provenance is an indispensable attribute: in this case, of valuable Great Britain stamps and covers.

The most comprehensive Provenance files of rare Great Britain has been meticulously maintained by Karl Louis AIEP, FRPSL., Corinphila’s Managing Director. Karl started his Great Britain ‘Card Index’ more than 35 years ago. Consisting of approximately 75000 records it is – to the best of our knowledge – by far the most comprehensive and important census of British Stamps in the philatelic world.

All Provenances given for items offered in the ‘DUBOIS’ collection of British Post Offices Abroad are based on information from the ‘Karl Louis Card Index’ and we will provide as much information on previous owners and sales as possible. We believe that this will benefit both potential buyers and future collectors. For further details, especially of what kind of items can be found in the ‘Card Index’ see: www.corinphila.ch 1756 (Nov 22): Cover from New York, docketed by one Richard Peters and addressed to the Honourable Thomas Penn in London, struck with very fine two line "NEW / YORK" in black (this handstamp was made in England and supplied by the General Post Office) with manuscript rate '3oz. 1/4', a heavy letter mailed at the rate of 1 shilling per 1/4 ounce, and thus charged "13N" (shillings) in manuscript due to pay. Reverse, displaying well on flap, with Bishop Mark of receipt "11/FE" in black. Reverse with manuscript docketing "Paid 2 pounds 5s. 3d." presumably the total for all the mail received by Thomas Penn on that day. Note: Thomas Penn, 1702-1775, son of the founder of the province of Pennsylvania, returned to England in 1751, head of the Penn family which owned nearly two thirds of modern Pennsylvania and Delaware. Letters between Penn and Richard Peters (1704-1776), secretary to the Land Office, can be found in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania collections.

5502 Seven Years War 1759 (July 31): Entire letter written by Major Mungo Campbell from Ticonderoga to Inverary via Edinburgh, Scotland with fascinating contents written just two days after the Battle of Ticonderoga (Fort Carillon): "The French deserted this place so soon as we got up our Batteries & then our Artillery played. They might have made victory dear to us. All your friends are perfectly well our success has been rapid, our expectations are sanguine and you may probably soon hear from us from Montreal at which place, or rather St. John, halfway to it, it is thought the French will make the first stand and that they will abandon Crown Point in the same hasty manner they evacuated this place on a few days at most: speedy preparations are making to embark on Lake Champlain...we are now preparing a salad from the gardens of Ticonderoga. Ware in high spirits only now and then the thoughts of an approaching peace and half pay damps us...", The cover is rated '2/11d.' to pay in manuscript (1s. to New York, 1s. Packet rate to Falmouth + 11d. inland postage) with Bishop Mark on reverse "8/SE" of receipt. Two small closed opening tears at top but an extremely historic and rare entire.

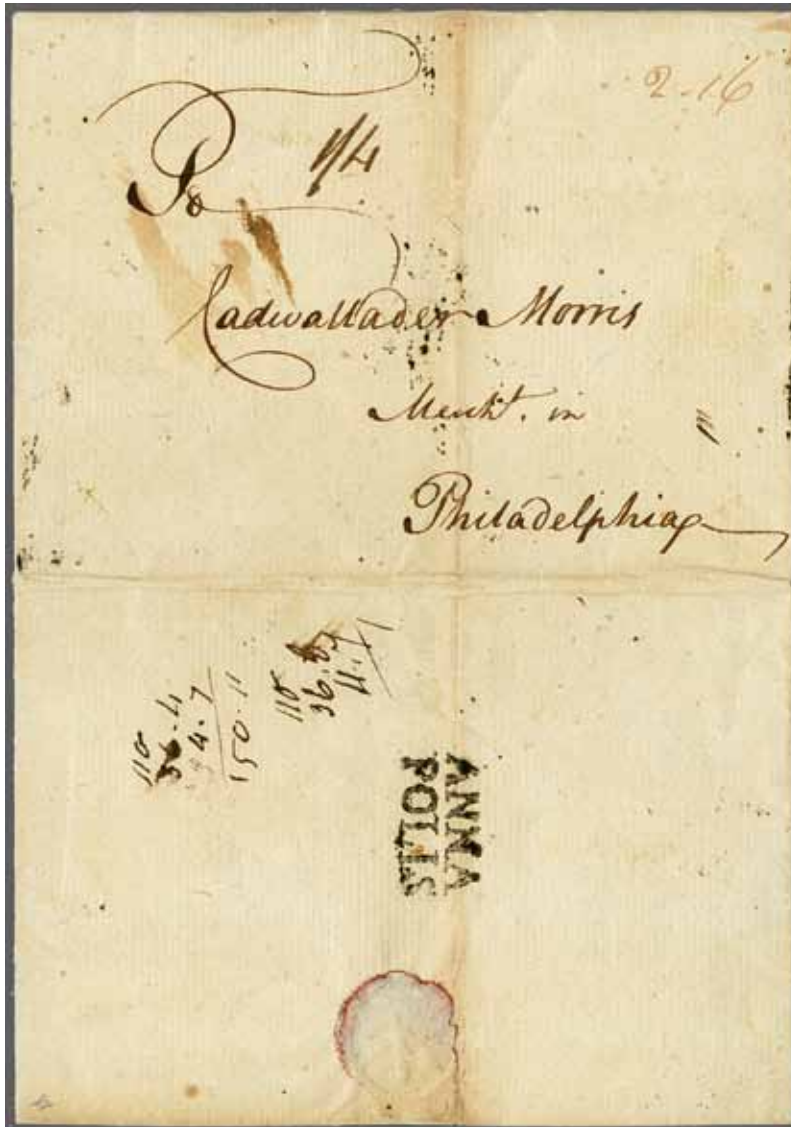

Note: General Sir Jeffery Amherst moved artillery to high ground overlooking Fort Carillon (Ticonderoga), which was latterly defended by a garrison of 400 Frenchmen under the command of Brigadier General François-Charles de Bourlamaque, many troops having already been sent North towards Montreal. Upon the French evacuation of the Fort after their attempt to blow it up, it was renamed and Amherst's forces began the repair of the Fort and boat building on Lake Champlain.

- 5504 1768 (Feb): Cover from Portsmouth, New Hampshire to Jared Ingersoll, Judge of the Court of the Admiralty in New York and re-addressed to New Haven, originally marked "On His Majesty's Service" but with annotation in manuscript "PD 1P+8" (1 penny-weight + 8 grains of silver); struck on reverse with "BOSTON" straight line handstamp in brown (first year of use) and Boston Bishop Mark "13/FE" in same ink and two line "NEW / YORK" in black with further Bishop Mark "25/FE". Some flap wear of no significance, truly superb strikes of both handstamps.

Note: The addressee, Jared Ingersoll was a Connecticut Stamp Agent and Judge of the Court of the Admiralty; his son, also named Jared (1749-1822) was a lawyer and statesman from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was a delegate to the Continental Congress and a signator of the United States Constitution.

- 5505 1769 (Aug 27): Entire letter from London to Governor Grant of St. Augustine, Florida via Charles Town, North Carolina. rated "1N" (1 shilling) for the Packet rate and struck on despatch with Bishop Mark "6/SE" in brown. Very fine strike of the two line "CHARLES / TOWN" handstamp in black applied on entry, and thence forwarded on to St. Augustine. A superb and very rare entire that displays well.

Note: In 1768, at the insistence of Governor Grant of Florida, a mail service was established between Charles Town and St. Augustine by Post Rider via Savannah and Sunbury. The journey took a fortnight in each direction and was discontinued after a few years.

The letter has fascinating chatty content including the "elopement of Lord Albemarle's Mistress...he had laid out £8'000 on her and the town say had made handsome provision for her in case of his death" and "being (Robert) Clive's friends they asked the Government to assist them in the Persian Gulph where Pirates had destroyed their trade..." and "The Duke of Norfolk is to be married to Miss Fitzroy Scudamore with near 6'000 a year..." (she later became insane and was locked away for many years).

- 5506 1772 (Jan 24): Cover from Sam Chase in Baltimore to Willam & Thomas Bradford, printers of Philadelphia with "2.16" in black manuscript (2 penny-weight, 16 grains of silver) and also annotated "1/4" (1 shilling 4 d. sterling) the equivalent amount prepaid in red ink, struck on reverse with straight line "BALTIMORE" handstamp in black, this handstamp being issued by the General Post Office in England. Strengthened at top and docketing at base "Sam Chase, Jan 24, 1772" - Chase was a signatory of the Declaration of Independence. Rare.

Note: The original letter was written from Annapolis (a photocopy is with the lot), with Chase asking for a Pocket Almanack and a blank small memorandum book, preferably to be delivered direct and not to the Coffee House as they would be "taken away by some idle person or other".

5508 Congress Post 1775 (July 1): Entire letter from Philadelphia via Williamsburg to Robert Carter at Nomony Hall, Westmoreland County, Virginia, rated at top in red manuscript "ON10" (10d.) prepaid, with reverse showing "PHILA. JULY 4" despatch handstamp in red across flap and superb strike of "WMS. BURG / JULY 15" arrival in red-brown ink: either the latest recorded strike of the British Colonial handstamp or the first under Benjamin Franklin's appointment as Postmaster General of the United Colonies. A marvellous entire of great historical importance.

Note: The addressee, Robert Carter of Nomony (Nomoni) Hall, was a lawyer and whilst he gave tacit support during the War of Independence, he was later one of very few Plantation owners to free all his 500+ slaves in 1788. The letter, written by Richard Henry Lee (1732-1794) was a member of the First Congress and signer of the Declaration of Independence which he himself first proposed in June 1776, is interesting: "It seems indeed as if Lord Dunmore was taking true pains to inculcate the censure of the whole reasonable world, conceiving I suppose, that it is the most likely way to please his Masters in the Administration. The enclosed printed hand-bill will give you an account of a very bloody engagement between a detachment of the Continental Army and the Ministerial Forces from Boston. Our enemies are compelled to remain under cover of their Ship's Cannon. Should they come out we have 15'000 men under command of Generals Washington, Ward, Lee, Putnam and others ready to give a good account. The Ministerial plan against New York we shall oppose with 5'000 men under the immediate command of General Schuyler. The Canadians have peremptorily refused to join Govr. Carleton and when he has warmly solicited the Indians to take up the hatchet against us, they tell him 'it is buried too deep, they cannot find it'. To us they promise a strict neutrality. Things being thus secured where our enemies proposed to make the deepest impression it remains with us in the middle and southern colonies to take care that the appreciation be faithfully observed...we hear that 13 Transports are arrived at N. York with about 2'000 soldiers, and on their being ordered round to Boston they mutiny and swear they will not go there to fight against their friends. General Howe who commanded the Ministerial Troops in the late battle, we have good accounts is dead of his wounds. He was by much the best Officer they had....Congress will I fear, sit a great part of the summer. Business inroads fast upon us and the public here seems unwilling we should get up before it is known how the Battle of Lexington was received in England..."

TRAVELLING BETWEEN ALEXANDRIA AND SUEZ VIA THE OVERLAND MAIL ROUTE

by Heinrich Mimberg, Frankfurt am Main

Thomas Waghorn (1800 – 1859) is considered one of the great pioneers of history. He discovered and developed the so called Overland Route, a travel route between Great Britain to Bombay or Calcutta via Marseille or Trieste (landbound route), connecting to Alexandria by ship, travelling the Nile from Alexandria to Cairo by river boats, crossing the desert from Cairo to Suez by camel and using overnight stations or camps in the desert. Upon arrival in Suez the travelers would board ships to Bombay or Calcutta. Waghorn's first trip via the overland route which was considered a test run took him 4 months and 21 days; a new record but still much longer than the 90 days he had promised.

Considering the fact that Waghorn did not receive support from any officials but the vice king Mohamed Ali he still was able to establish a well accepted travel route to India for mail and passengers by great personal effort and the establishment of many personal relations to the tribes of the desert. The service was dependable and took 90 days or less as promised. Over the years the development of the route allowed more and more luxurious travelling services.

In Egypt the river boats were replaced by modern steam ships, hotels with baths replaced simple inns. The crossing of the desert in specially developed horse carriages took only 20 hours. In seven rest stations the horses were replaced and the travelers were even served Champagne. The number of travelers grew from 275 in 1835 to over 2100 in 1845 and 3000 ten years later. The tourists used this route also for tours of Egypt, offered by Thomas Cook.

Already in 1832 Thomas Waghorn called the benefits of a train line between Alexandria and Cairo to Suez to the attention of Pascha Mohamed Ali especially for the transport of goods and pilgrims from Turkey, Africa and the Levante to Mekka. The English engineer Thomas Galloway developed a plan and calculated the cost for such a project. But due to political implications with Turkey this plan was never implemented. In later years France showed interest in the building of a train route, a new report was issued and again the building fell through due to financial reasons. Only after the death of Mohamed Ali could an agreement be reached.

In 1851 Robert Stephenson, whose father had built the first public train in England in 1821 and had established a train engine manufacturing company in 1823, began to build a single track train line between Alexandria and Cairo via Kafr-Es Sayat. This line was opened on January 1, 1856 and took over the transport of the mail from and to India. The building of the train line from Cairo to Suez began 1857 and was officially opened on May 25, 1859. In 1868 a direct connection between Alexandria and Suez via Kafr-Es Sayat-Salasig (Zagazig) without a direct connection to Cairo was opened.

In order to give an overview of the travel opportunities in the 1840's we have selected several articles from two publications of this time period. The first article describes the travel from India to London. From this article we have selected the section that describes the trip between Suez to Cairo. This travel account was first published in the issue from December 9, 1844 of the "Morgenblatt für gebildete Leser" of the "Augsburger Postzeitung" (Morning publication for educated readers of the Post-Newspaper of Augsburg). A wealthy couple from England describes the experiences they have during their travels. Afterwards we will present a report of a traveller and his family travelling half a year later from Alexandria to Cairo. We have preserved the sometimes unusual writing of some words.

Thomas Waghorn (1800 – 1859)

Robert Stephenson (1803 – 1859)

1. The travel from Suez to Cairo

The English couple used the shortest way that the European culture had forcefully established in recent times. The wife was writing about their travel experiences and her husband added some illustrations to the report.

We had to spend a miserable night on June 26, 1844 in Suez at the so-called Hotel from Hill and Compagnie.

The countless pests did not allow us to rest at all and we were happy when the day broke. We sped up our morning toilette and were happy to be able to go for breakfast which we had to eat under an indescribable swarm of flies; as soon as the tea was served our cups were filled with flies. This plague afflicts Egypt periodically and the season of the same is not yet completely over. The flies plagued us in such a way that we could not sit down at the table. I put some rolls in my pocket, which were very useful for us afterwards in the desert.

We now had first of all to manage our departure. The first requirement was that we paid our post-fee, which did not include the rent for the camels. You can either pay until Cairo, which is half the amount, or you can pay for the whole way to Alexandria. We were foolish enough to follow the advice of the agent and paid the entire 24 pounds, that is 12 pounds per person, and were consequently obliged to go from Cairo to Alexandria with Mr. Hill's mail. If we had not done so, we would have been free to choose from several other opportunities that were just as convenient and cheap. In Suez we were told about the advantage of having the first claim to the Nile steamboat, etc; this is pure fraud, as it does not make any difference whether the money is paid in advance or not - in short, it is a mere trap to force you to travel with them.

Travellers leaving Suez

We had left our luggage behind in order to be sent on the next transport as almost all the camels had been taken by our previous travelling companions. Everyone, except us, decided to travel at night to avoid the heat, but they continued their journey all the following day, which ended in Cairo at midnight. We, on the other hand, added two days, travelled only mornings and evenings, were able to see everything and escaped both the heat of the day and the unhealthy cold night winds that swept across the desert.

Soon the Gate of Suez was behind us and we suddenly found ourselves in the desert. But this area of "The Same" almost all the way to Cairo is completely different than what we had imagined. It is by no means an endless sandy plain; the view is limited by a low chain of rocky hills that rise here and there to more daring forms; in some places they retreat and form bays that resemble entrances to seaports. Near Suez they become so high that they almost could be called mountains.

The whole surface of the plain is covered with large, loose stones, and the ground is rocky rather than sandy, with the exception of two of the middle stations. The road consists only of a slightly visible lane and runs over stones and pieces of rock without regard for the bones of the travellers. I have never been thrown around so terribly in my life; nevertheless, nothing would have been more entertaining than our journey through the desert, if it hadn't been for my nausea spoiling my enjoyment. The very attraction of being swept away by the wilderness of the oriental world of fables in a carriage pulled by four horses was enough to replace the physical hardship, not counting the impressions of the countless interesting objects that presented themselves to us. The speed of our journey was truly extraordinary; the horses were not allowed to fall back for a moment to a walk or trot, and the Arab coachman who guided us all the way can truly be considered an excellent coachman.

The first thing we saw after leaving Suez was a well in the desert where many camels quenched their thirst after the long journey from Cairo during which they were given nothing to drink. The place was covered with the bones of these animals that had laid down and died of exhaustion. It is a horrible sight around the hundreds of corpses that lie along the whole; their flesh is soon eaten by the wolves and rats, while the bones are left to bleach in the sun. The water of this well is, as always in the desert, salty; it is surrounded by a wall, and for the devotion of the pilgrims there is a small mosque on the side. It is said that there are many wells in different parts of the desert, known only to the Bedouins, who make a secret of it.

Post station in the desert

It was 7:30 p. m. before we entered the station building no. 7. There are eight such station houses in the desert, built by Mohamed Ali for the comfort of the travellers. They are run by the Hill and Comp. and each have the same number of horses ready for harnessing. They also collect the fees from the travellers. One starts counting from Cairo. No. 1, 3, 5 and 7 are horse stables only, while No. 2, 4 and 6 include rooms and food for travellers. The station house no. 8 is in Suez.

We set off again soon. The "syce" or horse-boy, who usually ran beside the carriage, was changed with the horses at each station, but the harness remained the same throughout the tour; whether it suited the horses or not; the consequence was that the backs and shoulders of the poor animals were often quite sore.

We had twelve (English miles) to number 7 and had made our way to station no. 6 where we thought to rest during the heat of the day. Although it was still early in the morning, the sun's rays reflected back from the sandy areas around made the heat almost unbearable and the bumping of the car was worse than ever. We met several trains of camels going to Suez with baskets full of poultry. All necessities of life have to be transported from the delta across the desert, even the drinking water from the Nile, as all the wells there (in Suez) are salty. The carcasses of camels became more and more numerous; some of them were still covered with meat.

Traveller Station in the desert between Suez and Cairo

Finally we reached the station house Nr. 6. We were not able not see it until we were very close. No. 6 is standing on a sandy plain, with not even a stalk of grass or a leaf around it, and the gleam of its whitewashed walls was nothing less than inviting to us who were only sighing for shade. It was nine o'clock, so we immediately ordered breakfast and looked around a little. We had very good tea and excellent goat milk, from which you can get as much as you want throughout the desert. Instead of bread, you get big, round pieces of rusk, harder and firmer than any ship's rusk and with a strong taste of tar. At half past four we were on the road again. The afternoon sun was scorching hot and could not be kept out of the interior of the car because of the loose curtains.

After twelve miles we changed the horses at the station house Nr. 5; it is perfectly similar to the number 7 and all other stables on the trip. The next station was 14 miles away. The hills on both sides are lower in this area, the plain is wider and sandier. The whole surface is covered with countless rat holes. I also noticed several shrubby trees, but I do not know what kind they were.

We were heartily glad when we reached Station no. 4. This house stands at the halfway point of the journey and is therefore the best in the desert. It is much larger than the others and contains a long row of bedrooms and two function rooms. In front of the house there is a large walled courtyard where turkeys, geese, sheep and goats are kept for the table of the travellers. We found this inn much cleaner and cooler than the previous one. There was a very polite Italian steward there, who has been here since the house was built, that is seven years ago. We got good water in sufficient quantity for our tea and we softened the mentioned rusk to make it edible at all.

The english-indian Overland-Mail from Alexandrien to Suez. This image was first published in the german publication "Gartenlaube" in 1856. Dr. Leo Wojnke has used this image as a hand colored print in his collection. (s. Edition d'Or, „Thurn und Taxis – Frankaturen in das Ausland“, Band VII, Heinrich Köhler, Wiesbaden)

Despite my indisposition, I spent a much better night in the desert than in Suez, and was much less plagued by insects. We got up at daybreak, while the bitterly cold night wind was still blowing over the desert, so we considered ourselves lucky that we had not been exposed to it during the night. I can hardly describe the impression we got on the first stop that morning. Luckily for my poor sick head the ground was very good and had much less stones, and therefor it went incredibly fast. The coachman had his horses shot from the station; they immediately ran at full gallop and stopped almost all the way. It was as if we were flying over the plain, the cool morning air seemed to give the horses strength and liveliness.

Desert Carriage with four horses were used to transport people and goods from station to station.

As we encountered four horses returning, our coachman stopped to swap one of them, which was more suitable for him, for a less suitable one on our carriage. When we wanted to go on, the harness broke, but was quickly repaired, and we went at a gallop again, which seemed very rarely controlled, until, after fifteen miles, we reached station no. 3. The road soon became hilly and rough, so we drove a little slower now. We observed several times the phenomenon of the mirage or mirage, which is so often described by travellers and so cruelly deceives the tired, thirsty pilgrim. The distance to this station seemed very long to us (thirteen miles). The path ran constantly over small hills, with deep sand in between, and had many turns. We reached the station house no. 2 a little before nine. It was identical to station no. 6, except that there were fewer flies and better food; at least that is what we thought when we were given an excellent leg of scoop for breakfast, which one of our travelling companions had left over from her lunch yesterday.

Streetscene in Cairo by John Varley, 1881

Right after breakfast I went to bed and tried to rest from the strain, but in vain; I was tormented by fleas all morning. For lunch we enjoyed the rest of our meal from earlier that day and set off again.

After thirteen miles we reached station no. 1. On our way from here to Cairo we noticed the countless blocks of petrified wood, whole tree trunks were laying on the side of the road, and apparently this whole district must once have been a forest. When we had passed station number 1 at about 1 mile, we saw a silver stream winding on the western horizon, it was the glorious Nile, its waters reflecting across in an unclouded silver shimmer, while all other objects were shrouded in foggy distance.

Finally domes and minarets became visible and in front of us was Greater Cairo, with the wonderful pyramids in the background. We still had several miles ahead of us and now, with the finish so close, we were rattling along in a happy mood. The coachman steered his horses in a gallop with great agility through the narrow alleys and around the sharp corners. Finally we travelled through the city gate and found ourselves in the big square of Cairo. The high, overhanging houses with their decorated wooden lattice walls, between which many fiery eyes could be seen, the crowds of pedestrians and horsemen, each one for the unaccustomed eye in a new costume, the Egyptian women riding on donkeys with their legs crossed, all these impressions overwhelmed me and I do not know how I reached the "Great Eastern Hotel". So much for the report of the English couple.

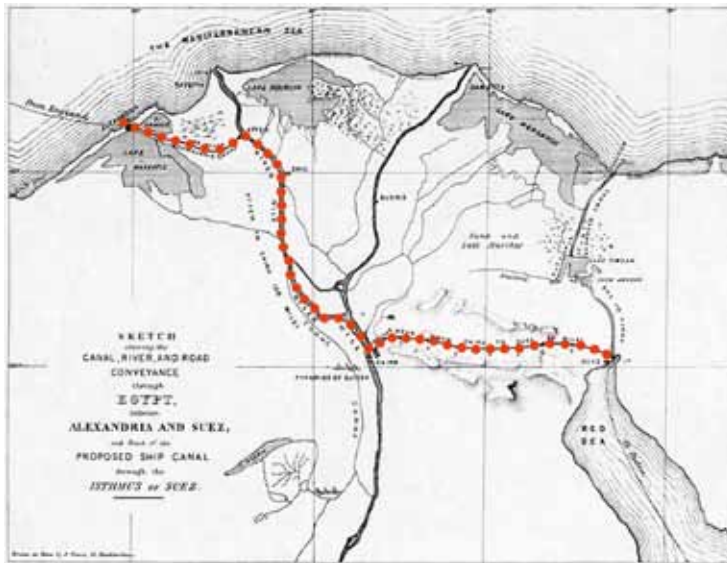

2. Travel from Alexandria to Cairo

The author J. J. Weibrecht describes his travel experiences which led him from England to India. On arrival in Alexandria he wrote: The coast is low and sandy, but at the entrance to the bay we saw breaking waves and experienced pilots can navigate their ships between the rocky reefs. After breakfast we went ashore in an Arabian boat, and went to the French Hotel l'Orient, which was so full of guests that we had a very hard time finding a place to stay. The night we spent in Alexandria, I will not easily forget. We had a small room and one bed for me, my wife and our little son together. The air was muggy and the mosquitoes were biting us so mercilessly that I could hardly keep an eye on them. We heard at the inn that we were to leave for Cairo the following morning. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock we left the city in order to reach the Mahmudie Canal, where two long boats were ready to take us on. These were towed by a small steam boat and after 11 o'clock we left.

Abb. 5: View of Alexandria

The Mahmudie Channel runs over a distance of 48 English miles from Alexandria to Atfeh (Aften), where it is connecting to the Nile,. It was dug under the leadership of Mehemen Ali. It supplies Alexandria with drinking water and is 50 or 60 feet wide. 50,000 Fellahs worked on it for seven years, while thousands of them died of the plague. In the afternoon we noticed water in our boat, which increased by the minute. The water entered from the side because the boat was too full of cargo and people. Late in the evening at 10 o'clock we reached Atfeh, where we saw the Nile for the first time. The Egyptian Transit Company arranges the passage of passengers and their luggage from Alexandria to Cairo. The steamboat was so full of people that it was almost impossible to find a place to sleep neither on the deck nor in the dining room.

Overland Mail Route through Egypt

At 4 pm we saw Cairo at the foot of a rocky mountain range. Soon afterwards the steamboat moored at Bulack, which is the name of the suburb and port of Cairo. The traveller described his stay of several days in the Egyptian metropolis in vivid detail and then travelled on with a caravan to Suez.

The travel possibilities and the transport of goods around 1840 cannot be compared with today's standards. Nevertheless it is very interesting to read about the adventures of travellers during this time. Searching in old daily newspapers, one can find many reports that give great insights into the travel activities of that time.

Camels were used to transport mail and travellers from Cairo to Suez. The difficult and time-consuming sea route around the Cape of Good Hope could be avoided. In 1842, the postal administration of Thurn und Taxis also used this overland mail. This can be read in an ordinance from July 19, 1842:

"The monthly mail service maintained by the British government since a few years ago via France, Marseilles, Malta, Alexandria, Suez and through the Red Sea (use of steam ships on the Red Sea) to and from Bombay also provides the fastest connection with the East Indies from Germany. Letters and newspapers are usually transported along this route within 5 to 6 weeks. This transport takes place by the so-called Overland Mail, which the British government maintains once a month via France and Egypt. The departure of this mail from Marseille to Alexandria and the East Indies takes place on the ninth of each month."

The "transit traffic over the Isthmus of Suez" is the focus of the following newspaper report (Augsburger Postzeitung)

Alexandria, December 31, 1844. The Postal Convention between the English and the Egyptian postal administrations has now been finalized by H. H. Bourne and Baki-Bei, the newly appointed Postal Director, but still needs ratification from London. As a result of this agreement the English mail will no longer be transported through Egypt by the English postal services to Alexandria and Suez by means of pack animals on their own account, but will be transferred to the Egyptian administration immediately after their arrival. The Egyptian administration will then be solely responsible for the transport through Egypt. The letter boxes are sealed and will be accompanied by a British postal officer. The journey from Alexandria to Suez is to be made in 58 hours and vice versa in 52 hours. On the route between Alexandria and Cairo the service is carried out by Egyptian Nile steam boats, between Suez and Cairo by wagons and pack animals. For every pound of English letters, 40 Egyptian piasters (4 fl. K. M.) and for each sheet of newspapers 5 pará (3/4 K. M.) are paid. The agreement has been signed for a period of 5 years and will take effect starting the month of May. – The Egyptian Postal Administration (actually the Transit Company founded by Mehemed Ali) will also deal with the transport of passengers and goods. For the journey from Alexandria to Cairo several steamships are at the disposal of travellers, but one can choose any other option to travel; this variety of options is not available for travels through the desert, where the natives are not allowed to transport travellers freely.

All goods which are handed over to the Egyptian post office for further transport to Suez are exempt from any toll manipulation and except for freight cost itself only the reduced transit fee of ½ percent of their value has to be paid. Goods which transit through Egypt in any other way must be subject to the formalities at the toll offices; security must be provided for their re-exportation and finally, the customs duties imposed by the 7th EDF set in the Article of the Commercial Treaty of 1838 at a fee of 3 percent must be paid.

Cover endorsed at lower left 'R.E.' - the sender being Lieutenant Richard Fitzrichard Eyre, grandson of Baron Eyre of Ireland, he was in the 44th Regiment and died of Cholera in the Crimea. An extraordinary and unique usage - no imperforates are recorded used in Malta by Stanley Gibbons - the cover was most probably accepted as a Soldier's or Sailor's Letter at the concessionary 1 penny rate. Closed tear to envelope and small imperfections at top but a superb and rare franking.
Note: HMS Pearl had a chquered career, taking part in the Taiping Rebellion and the bombardment of Kagoshima during the Anglo-Satsuma War. In May 1861 the Pearl was involved in an incident involving a British merchant ship named North Star and Chinese pirates. On 13 May, pirates in a junk attacked the North Star off the coast of Hong Kong Island. They killed or mortally wounded at least five members of the crew and stole over $4'000 worth of gold before abandoning the ship. Only two survivors remained on the ship and they hid from the pirates until they left the North Star and then they set sail for the port of Hong Kong. HMS Pearl was anchored off Green Island at the time and she eventually recovered both the merchantman and the survivors.

Taxe à la valeur ajoutée suisse (TVA)

Alle in unseren Auktionskatalogen angebotenen Lose unterliegen der gesetzlichen Schweizer Mehrwertsteuer (MWST). Auf den Gesamtbetrag der Auktionsfaktura werden 7,7% MWST berechnet: auf alle Zuschläge plus Aufgeld, sowie auf Porto & Versandkosten, sofern die Lose durch Corinphila Auktionen AG versendet werden.

All auction lots offered in our catalogues are subject to 7.7% Swiss Value Added Tax (VAT). The VAT of 7.7% will be added to the auction invoice: on the total of hammer price(s) plus buyers commission, as well as on handling & shipping fees if they apply.

Tous les lots proposés à nos ventes sont soumis à la TVA suisse. Celle-ci se monte à 7,7% et sera calculée sur le montant total de la facture (prix réalisé + commission + port éventuel).

Only lots sent with official export documents by Corinphila Auktionen AG to countries outside of Switzerland are exempt from Swiss VAT: these invoices will be issued without 7.7% Swiss Value Added Tax (VAT).

La TVA suisse de 7,7% sera exemptée sur les lots exportés officiellement par Corinphila avec les papiers d'exportation correspondant au montant de la facture.

Remboursement de la TVA suisse en cas d'exportation personnelle par l'acheteur

Werden die Lose durch den Käufer persönlich exportiert und aus der Schweiz ausgeführt, dann wird die Auktionsfaktura mit 7,7% MWST ausgestellt. Beim Verlassen der Schweiz muss der Käufer die Lose zusammen mit der Auktionsfaktura und den Exportdokumenten bei den Schweizer Zollbehörden deklarieren. Die Rückerstattung der MWST (7,7%) durch Corinphila Auktionen AG erfolgt ausschliesslich nach Erhalt der durch die Schweizer Zollbehörden beglaubigten Exportdokumente.

Corinphila Auktionen AG will refund the previously added Swiss VAT only upon presentation of the export documents officially approved by Swiss customs authorities.

En cas d'exportation personnelle des lots par l'acheteur la facture la TVA suisse de 7,7% sur le montant total. La TVA ne sera remboursée que si l'acheteur avant de quitter le territoire se rend à la douane suisse avec la facture, les lots et les papiers d'exportation afin de les faire valider. Seulement à réception de ceux-ci Corinphila Auktionen AG pourra alors rembourser la TVA à l'acheteur.

VERSTEIGERUNGSBEDINGUNGEN

1. Die Versteigerung erfolgt öffentlich und freiwillig. Die Teilnahme daran gilt als Anerkennung der als bekannt vorausgesetzten Versteigerungsbedingungen der Corinphila Auktionen AG (nachfolgend Versteigerer genannt) durch den Käufer (nachfolgend auch Bieter genannt).

2. Alle im Katalog aufgeführten Lose können vom Bieter vor oder während der Auktion besichtigt werden; für den bei der Besichtigung entstandenen Schaden haftet der Bieter. Der Versteigerer behält sich das Recht vor, von der im Katalog angegebenen Reihenfolge abzuweichen, Lose zusammenzulegen oder Lose aus der Auktion zurückzuziehen; die Schätzpreise im Auktionskatalog sind unverbindliche Ausrufpreise. Der Versteigerer ist auch berechtigt, einzelne Personen ohne Angabe von Gründen von der Versteigerung auszuschliessen.

3. Die Beschreibungen der Lose erfolgen mit grösster Sorgfalt und nach bestem Wissen, sie stellen jedoch keine zugesicherten Eigenschaften dar. Bei den im Katalog abgebildeten Marken ist für Rand, Zähnung und Stempel die Abbildung massgebend. Qualitäts- und Echtheitsbeanstandungen an Einzellosen sind von persönlich anwesenden Käufern sofort vorzubringen; schriftliche Bieter haben Beanstandungen für Einzellose innerhalb 3 Tagen nach Erhalt der Ware schriftlich zu übermitteln.

Bei Sammlungen oder Sammellosen, welche zwei oder mehr nicht einzeln beschriebene Marken enthalten, sind Qualitäts- und Echtheitsbeanstandungen ausgeschlossen. Das Beanstandungsrecht erlischt auch dann, wenn Marken nicht im Originalzustand zurückgegeben oder nachträglich vom Käufer verändert werden; unter Vorbehalt des Anbringens von Prüfzeichen eines für Irrtümer haftenden Prüfers.

4. Der Versteigerer haftet für die Echtheit der verkauften Einzellose während 5 Jahren. Ausgeschlossen ist die Haftung für Sammlungen und Sammellose, welche zwei oder mehr nicht einzeln beschriebene Marken enthalten - diese Lose sind ausdrücklich von jeglicher Reklamation ausgeschlossen. Bei Einzellosen, die von einem Experten mit einem Attest versehen sind, gilt mit Abgabe eines Gebotes dieses Attest als massgeblich anerkannt und ist insoweit eine Haftung des Versteigerers ausgeschlossen. Wünscht ein Bieter die Abgabe eines Gebotes auf ein Einzellos unter Vorbehalt (extension), muss dies dem Versteigerer mindestens 24 Stunden vor der Auktion schriftlich bekanntgegeben werden; anzugeben sind die Gründe für den Vorbehalt und von welchem Experten (dem der Auktionator zustimmen muss) eine Stellungnahme gewünscht wird. Vorbehalte gegenüber einem bestehenden Attest können normalerweise nur in Bezug auf Echtheit oder Klassifizierung gemacht werden; wird ein Zuschlag unter Vorbehalt aus Gründen gewünscht, die Erhaltung bzw. Zustand des Loses betreffen, entscheidet der Auktionator im Namen des Einlieferers darüber vor der Auktion. Der Auktionator behält sich das Recht vor, Gebote unter Vorbehalt zu streichen, wenn seiner Meinung nach das Los nicht der im Antrag auf Vorbehalt gemachten Beschreibung entspricht. Vorbehalte müssen bis spätestens 20 Tage nach Abschluss der Auktion geklärt sein, danach verfällt das Recht auf Rückgabe. Auf Sammlungen oder Sammellose mit zwei oder mehr nicht einzeln beschriebenen Marken wird kein Vorbehalt gewährt. Alle Kosten für die Stellungnahme des/der Experten im Zusammenhang der mit Vorbehalt gebotenen Lose gehen zu Lasten des Bieters.

5. Den Zuschlag erhält der Meistbietende nach dreimaligem Aufruf. Auf den Zuschlagpreis hat der Käufer ein Aufgeld von 22% zu entrichten. Ein Bieter bleibt an das abgegebene Gebot gebunden, wenn ein nachfolgendes Übergebot ungültig ist oder vom Versteigerer zurückgewiesen wird.

6. Die Mindeststeigerungsstufen betragen:

Ausrufpreise, Gebote, Zuschläge und Rechnungsstellung ausschliesslich in Schweizer Franken (CHF).

Die im Katalog angegebenen Ausrufpreise in Euro (EUR) haben nur informativen Charakter.

7. Schriftliche Gebote werden, soweit sie höher liegen als das beste Gebot eines anwesenden Bieters, interessewahrend und gewissenhaft, aber ohne Gewähr ausgeführt. Schriftliche Gebote, welche uns später als 2 Stunden vor Beginn der jeweiligen Auktionssession erreichen, können unter Umständen nicht mehr bearbeitet werden. Liegen zwei oder mehr gleichlautende Gebote vor, bekommt das zuerst eingegangene Gebot den Zuschlag. In Zweifelsfällen, bei Streitigkeiten oder Missverständnissen erfolgt ein nochmaliger Ausruf. Den Entscheid darüber trifft die mitwirkende Behörde.

8. Mit dem Zuschlag kommt zwischen dem Versteigerer und dem Bieter, der den Zuschlag erhält, ein Kaufvertrag zustande, der zur Abnahme verpflichtet. Mit dem Zuschlag geht die Gefahr der Sache auf den Käufer über; der Eigentumsübergang erfolgt hingegen erst mit der vollen Zahlung des Kaufpreises.

9. Der Zuschlag erfolgt in Schweizer Franken (CHF). Fremdwährungen werden im Betrage der durch eine Schweizer Grossbank getätigten Gutschrift anerkannt; eventuelle Kursdifferenzen werden dem Käufer in Rechnung gestellt. Die schweizerische Mehrwertsteuer (MwSt) von 7,7% wird zum Zuschlagspreis inkl. 22% Aufgeld hinzugerechnet. Die MwSt entfällt für Käufer aus dem Ausland mit rechtsgültiger, direkter Ausfuhrdeklaration; Käufern aus dem Ausland, welche die Ware persönlich exportieren, wird die in Rechnung gestellte MwSt nach Vorlage der amtlichen Ausfuhrdeklaration zurückvergütet.

10. Die Bezahlung der ersteigerten Lose hat grundsätzlich am Auktionstag zu erfolgen, sofern der Versteigerer nicht eine 5tägige Zahlungsfrist einräumt. Käufer, welche die Lose nicht persönlich abholen, überweisen den Betrag sofort nach Rechnungsstellung. Der Anspruch auf Aushändigung der zugeschlagenen Lose entsteht erst nach vollständiger Bezahlung. Bei Zahlungsverzug behält sich der Versteigerer vor, entweder auf Zahlung des Kaufpreises zu klagen oder vom Kaufgeschäft ohne weitere Fristansetzung unter Geltendmachung von Schadenersatz (inkl. entgangener Gewinn) zurückzutreten (Art. 107-109 OR). Bei verspäteter Zahlung von mehr als 30 Tagen nach Rechnungsstellung werden ein Zuschlag von 5% und Zinsen von 1% pro Monat berechnet.

11. Die Zustellung der zugeschlagenen Lose durch die Post oder auf anderem Wege erfolgt auf Rechnung und Gefahr des Käufers.

12. Personen, die als Stellvertreter in fremdem Namen oder als Organ einer juristischen Person bieten, haben den Nachweis der Vertretungsbefugnis (Vollmacht, Zeugnis des Handelsregisteramtes) vorzulegen; zudem sind sie persönlich haftbar, insbesondere auf die in Bezug auf die Versteigerung eingegangenen Verpflichtungen. Gebote für namentlich nicht bezeichnete oder erst später bezeichnete Personen oder für noch nicht bestehende juristische Personen werden nicht berücksichtigt.

13. Schadenersatzansprüche gegen den Versteigerer, sei es aus Verzug, Unmöglichkeit der Leistung, positiver Vertragsverletzung, Verschulden bei Vertragsbruch oder unerlaubter Handlung sind ausgeschlossen, soweit der Schaden nicht durch vorsätzliches oder grob fahrlässiges Handeln verursacht worden ist.

14. Die Auktion wird unter der Aufsicht des Stadtmannamtes Zürich 8 als mitwirkender Behörde durchgeführt. Für Handlungen des Versteigerers haften weder der Stadtmann oder dessen Vertreter noch Stadt oder Kanton Zürich.

15. Die Versteigerung und die daraus entstehenden Rechtsbeziehungen unterstehen schweizerischem Recht. Erfüllungsort und Gerichtsstand ist Zürich 1. Der Versteigerer behält sich jedoch das Recht vor, den Schuldner an seinem Wohnsitz zu belangen. Soweit in den vorliegenden Versteigerungsbedingungen keine Sonderregelungen getroffen sind, gelten die Bestimmungen der Verordnung des Obergerichtes Zürich über das Verfahren bei freiwilligen öffentlichen Versteigerungen vom 19.12.1979.

CONDITION OF SALE

1. The auction will take place publicly and voluntarily. Participation means acceptance in full of the Terms of Auction, considered as known, of Corinthia Auktion AG (hereafter referred to as the Auctioneer) by the Purchaser (hereafter also referred to as the Bidder or Buyer).

2. All lots mentioned in the catalogue may be inspected by Bidders before or during the auction. The Bidder will be held responsible for any damage caused during the viewing. The Auctioneer has absolute discretion to deviate from the lotting order, to combine two or more lots or to withdraw any lot from the auction. The estimated prices in the catalogue are not binding. The Auctioneer is also authorized to refuse any person's attendance at the auction without giving any reason.

3. The lots are described with greatest care and to the best of the Auctioneer's knowledge. The descriptions do not, however, constitute any particular guarantee. The catalogue illustration prevails as regards the margin, centring, separation and postmark of the stamps. Claims concerning quality and authenticity of single lots must be made immediately by the Buyer being personally present. In the case of written bids for single lots, claims must be made in writing within three days after receipt of the goods. In the case of collections or mixed lots containing two or more stamps which are not described individually, no claims will be accepted regarding quality and authenticity. Complaints must also be refused if the stamps are not returned in the original condition, or if they have been altered afterwards by the Buyer, except in the case of marks made by a recognised expert who is responsible for his errors.

4. The Auctioneer is liable for the authenticity of all single lots sold for a period of 5 years. This guarantee is expressly excluded in respect of collections, accumulations or mixed lots containing more than two stamps which are not described individually - those lots are excluded from any claims. The bidding for single lots which have been certified by an expert denotes the acceptance of the certificate by the Buyer, and in this case the Auctioneer cannot be held liable. If a prospective buyer wishes to bid with an extension on any single lot, the auctioneer must receive notice in writing at least 24 hours prior to the day of the auction; this written notice must give the reason why an extension is required and whose expert opinion is to be sought; the latter must be agreed by the auctioneer. Extensions for expert opinion will normally only be considered for reasons of genuineness or classification; requests for extension for reasons of condition will be decided by the auctioneer on behalf of the vendor prior to the sale. The auctioneer reserves the right to cancel any bid with an extension (notifying the bidder of his action) if in his opinion the item is not as described within the terms of the request for extension. All extensions must be cleared within 20 days of the auction, after which time the right of return is forfeited. Extensions are not granted on mixed lots or collections. All costs and charges for expert opinions are the responsibility and liability of the buyers.

5. The lots will be sold to the highest Bidder upon three calls. The Buyer shall pay a commission of 22% added to the hammer price. Bidders are bound to their bids if a subsequent higher bid is invalid or immediately refused by the Auctioneer.

6. The minimum bidding increments are as follows:

	up to CHF	200	= CHF	10
from CHF	200	up to CHF	500	= CHF 20
from CHF	500	up to CHF	1'000	= CHF 50

	over CHF	150'000	= CHF	10'000

Start prices, bids, hammer prices and invoices exclusively in Swiss Francs (CHF).

Start prices in Euro (EUR) indicated in the catalogues are only for information.

7. Written bids which are higher than the best bid of a Bidder present will be considered carefully and in the Bidder's interest but without prejudice. Written bids received later than 2 hours before the start of the auction sale session may not be processed. In the case of two or more identical bids, the first bid received will be deemed to be the successful bid. In case of doubt, disputes or misunderstandings, the lot will be auctioned again. This decision will be made by the Cantonal authority.

8. Upon the fall of the Auctioneer's hammer, a sales contract is entered into between the Auctioneer and the Bidder. The Buyer is obliged to accept the goods. The risk passes to the Buyer with the fall of the hammer; title of ownership, however, passes to the Buyer only after full payment of the total amount due.

9. The total amount due is payable in Swiss Francs (CHF). Foreign currencies will be accepted to the extent of the amounts credited by a principal Swiss bank; any costs arising from exchange rate differences will be borne by the bidder. In addition to the hammer price including the 22% commission, the Swiss value-added tax (VAT) of 7.7% is payable. VAT is not payable by Buyers from abroad possessing a legal direct export declaration. If Buyers from abroad wish to export the lots themselves, VAT will be debited and refunded upon presentation of the legal export declaration.

10. Payment of lots is due on the day of auction unless the Auctioneer has granted terms of payment of 5 days thereafter. Bidders who do not personally pick-up their lots are obliged to transfer the amount due immediately on receipt of invoice. The handing over of lots can only be claimed after payment in full. Upon delay of payment the Auctioneer reserves the right either to sue the Buyer for payment or to cancel the sales contract without granting any further grace period and to claim for damages (including lost profits) according to article 107-109 CO. If payment is more than 30 days overdue, a surcharge of 5% and interest in the amount of 1% per month will be payable.

11. The lots sold will be forwarded by mail or by other means of transport at the Bidder's risk and expense.

12. Any Bidders acting on account and behalf of a legal person must submit proof of their representation right (power of attorney, certificate of registration). They are personally liable, especially regarding the obligations entered into during the auction. Bids made for unnamed persons or for persons named later or for not yet legally existing persons cannot be considered.

13. Claims for damages against the Auctioneer for delay, non-performance, positive infringement of contract, fault in breach of contract are not permissible unless the damage was caused deliberately or through gross negligence.

14. The auction will be held under the supervision of the Zurich 8 City Council as participating authority. Neither the Councillor nor his representative nor the City and Council of Zurich are liable for the Auctioneer's actions.

15. The auction and any subsequent legal relationship are subject to Swiss law. Place of execution and place of jurisdiction is Zurich 1. The Auctioneer, however, reserves the right to sue the Buyer at his place of residence. Unless any special regulations have been made in these terms of auction, the rules under the decree passed by the Zurich Court of Appeals on actions relating to voluntary public auctions dated 19.12.1979 shall apply.

MISER PAR ÉCRIT CHEZ CORINPHILA (FR)

Si vous ne pouvez participer personnellement à notre vente, faites nous parvenir vos offres écrites maximum au plus vite en remplissant le formulaire d'ordre d'achat que se trouve dans chaque catalogue. Les offres écrites nous parvenant moins de 2 heures avant le début de la vente ne peuvent plus, pour des raisons techniques, être prises en considération. En cas d'offres égales le lot sera attribué au premier ordre reçu. Les offres inférieures à nos prix de départ ne sont pas acceptées. Les offres écrites seront traitées comme si vous étiez personnellement présent dans la salle de vente. L'attribution des lots se fait au plus offrant mais aux prix le plus bas possible: si p.ex. vous misez par écrit un lot 2'200 CHF, et que la mise immédiatement inférieure (par écrit ou verbalement) est de 1'500 CHF, vous obtenez le lot pour 1'600 CHF, c'est à dire une échelon de plus que la deuxième offre dans notre échelle d'enchère (donc 600 CHF au-dessous de votre offre). Nous protégeons vos intérêts exactement comme si vous étiez personnellement présent à la vente!

Nous savons par expérience que beaucoup d'offres écrites ne sont pas couronnées de succès. C'est pourquoi nous vous offrons la possibilité de donner des offres alternatives afin d'augmenter vos chances d'obtenir un lot. Si vous vous intéressez par exemple à deux ou plusieurs lots mais vous ne voulez en obtenir qu'un seul, écrivez alors simplement „OU“ entre les différents numéros de lots.

En outre vous pouvez également limiter le montant total de vos achats (commission de 22% non incluse). Par exemple si vous misez plusieurs lots pour un montant total de 10'000 CHF et que vous désirez limiter vos achats à 7'500 CHF, alors les lots ne vous seront adjugés que jusqu'à ce montant, même si vos mises sur les lots suivants au cours de la vente étaient encore les plus élevées.

En donnant vos ordres par écrit, vous ne savez pas encore quels lots vous seront attribués. Grâce à la possibilité de nous donner des offres alternatives et/ou de limiter le total de vos achats, vous augmentez vos chances d'obtenir des lots par écrit, sans prendre de risques financiers supplémentaires.

Si vous souhaitez miser le plus rapidement possible, envoyez vos ordres par courrier électronique à info@corinphila.ch ou par téléfax au numéro +41 (0) 44 - 389 91 95.

VOSTRE OFFERTE SCRITTE (IT)

Se non potete partecipare personalmente alla nostra asta, vi preghiamo di inviarci per iscritto e prima possibile le vostre offerte massime – a tale scopo dovreste utilizzare il modulo allegato a ciascun catalogo. Le offerte scritte che ci giungeranno a più di 2 ore dall'inizio della relativa asta, non potranno più essere elaborate. In caso di offerte scritte equivalenti per lo stesso lotto, sarà data precedenza alla prima offerta pervenuta. Le offerte inferiori non saranno accettate.

Terremo conto delle offerte scritte solo se in sala saranno presenti altri offerenti o se eventuali altre richieste scritte dovessero superare quelle pervenute. L'aggiudicazione in genere avviene non per l'ammontare della vostra offerta massima scritta, bensì per il minor importo possibile. Ad esempio: se per un determinato lotto avete presentato un'offerta scritta di 2'000 CHF, ma l'offerta immediatamente inferiore è pari a 1'500 CHF, vi potrete aggiudicare il lotto già con un'offerta di 1'600 CHF corrispondente alla tabella del rialzo minimo (vedi le nostre condizioni al rialzo). Rappresenteremo i vostri interessi di offerente per iscritto proprio come se foste realmente presenti in sala!

Sappiamo per esperienza che gli offerenti per iscritto si aggiudicano molto raramente tutti i lotti cui sono interessati. Sfruttate quindi la possibilità di presentare offerte alternative – in tal modo potrete aumentare le vostre possibilità di vincita. Potreste ad esempio essere interessati a due o più lotti, ma desiderate aggiudicarvene uno solo: in questo caso vi basterà inserire l'annotazione „OPPURE“ fra i numeri di lotto corrispondenti. Inoltre potrete anche limitare l'importo totale per i vostri acquisti (escl. aggio del 22%): se ad esempio siete interessati a svariati lotti per un valore complessivo di 10'000 CHF e nella vostra offerta scritta limitate l'importo totale dei vostri acquisti a 7'500 CHF, vi aggiudicherete solo i lotti fino a questo importo massimo se doveste essere l'offerente maggiore per altri lotti.

Consegnando le vostre offerte scritte non potete sapere in anticipo quali lotti vi aggiudicherete – d'altro canto però (se a chiusura d'asta doveste constatare che le vostre offerte non sono state accettate) potreste anche essere interessati ad altri lotti; presentando offerte alternative e/o limitazione dell'importo totale per i vostri acquisti aumenterete le vostre possibilità di aggiudicarvi i lotti cui siete interessati in qualità di offerente per iscritto, senza che venga superato il limite da voi prefissato.

Le vostre offerte scritte ci possono pervenire rapidamente per E-MAIL: info@corinphila.ch oppure per TELEFAX allo +41-(0)44-389 91 95.
