- 473 1880/1945: Fine collection, primarily featuring foreign post offices in China on covers and postcards. The German offices represent 15 items, including material from Kiautschou. From Hong Kong, the collection includes a Chinese stationery postcard with additional 1 c. and 2 c. stamps, used in combination with two Hong Kong Two Cents stamps, sent from Peking in 1899 to Ludwigsburg, Germany. The French post offices are represented by 20 items, mostly addressed to Switzerland with registered covers. The collection also features 9 items from Japanese post offices, including six wrappers to Switzerland. Among them is a souvenir card bearing a 4 s. stamp alongside a 1 c. China stamp, documenting the 'Day of the Conquest of Newchwang by Japan on 31 August 1904' (not circulated). Additionally, there are four items related to the Japanese conquest of Manchuria, including three picture postcards, as well as a first-day cover issued during the Japanese occupation of Singapore, commemorating the third anniversary of the city's fall. Furthermore, the collection contains four items from Russian post offices. Several cut-outs and fragments are also present but are not listed in the respective sections. (Photo =  www)
