7001 King's letter; 1545 (Feb 20): Entire Courier letter 'Kaiserbrief' from Prague Castle to the 'Statthalter, Kanzler, Regenten und Kammerräte der Niederösterreichische Lande' in Vienna, written in German and signed by autograph 'Ferdinand' of King Ferdinand I of Bohemia, the later Holy Roman Emperor Ferdinand I, two pages of text, closed by large paper-backed seal. In very good shape, a desirable item.

Note 1: Ferdinand (1503-1564) became King of Bohemia in 1526, the first belonging to the house of Habsburg. After the death of his brother-in-law Louis II of Hungary and Bohemia, at the Battle of Mohács on 29 August 1526, Ferdinand immediately applied to the parliaments of Hungary and Bohemia to participate as a candidate in the royal elections. On 24 October 1526 the Bohemian Diet elected Ferdinand king of Bohemia under conditions of confirming traditional privileges of the estates and also moving the Habsburg court to Prague. Ferdinand tried to reduce the influence of the privileged estates and the recatolization of the lands of the Bohemian Crown resulting in the Estates Revolt of 1547. Following the abdication of his brother Charles V in 1556 he became Holy Roman Emperor and Archduke of Austria. After becoming King of Bohemia in 1526, the first postal route between Prague and Vienna was organized by the Thurn & Taxis family.

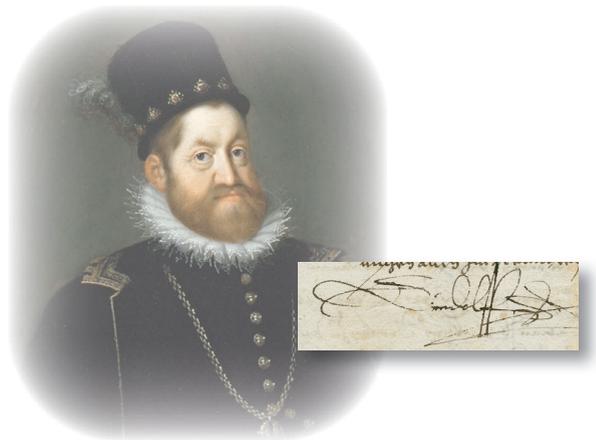

Note 2: This and the consecutive lots contain a complete series of letters signed primarily in the Hradschin in Prague in manuscript by the ruling Kings of Bohemia between 1526 and 1637, from Ferdinand I to Ferdinand II. Thus they are perfectly suited to document this moved period in the conflict between Czech reformation and Habsburg recatholization leading finally to the Second Defenestration of Prague and the Thirty Year's War.

King Charles II

- 7010 Kaiserbriefe, 1724 (March): Entire letter written in German and signed by autograph 'Carl' of Charles II, King of Bohemia and Holy Roman Emperor Charles VI, directed to the 'Unter-Cammerer in Unserm Markgraffthum Mähren, Johann Christoph von Doberschitz' in Brno / Brünn, signed in addition by Franz Ferd. Comes Kinsky and Wilhelm Graf von Kolowarath, two pages of text dealing with administrative processes in Znaim, closed by large Imperial paper-backed seal, handwritten 'franco tutto' denoting full pre-payment and '27 Marz 1724' arrival note.
Note: Charles VI (1 October 1685 – 20 October 1740) was Holy Roman Emperor, ruler of the Austrian Habsburg monarchy, and thereby King of Bohemia from 1711 until his death. He unsuccessfully claimed the throne of Spain following the death of his relative, Charles II. Having no male offspring, his death led to the War of the Austrian Succession, which plagued his successor, Maria Theresa, for eight years.

- 7011 Kaiserbriefe, 1749 (Sept): Entire letter written in German and signed by autograph 'Maria Theresia' of Maria Theresia, Queen of Bohemia and Holy Roman Emperor, directed to the 'Judicio Delegato in Causis Commissorium in Unserem Erb-Markgraftthum Mähren' in Brno / Brünn, signed in addition by von Seilern and von Stanz, two pages of text, closed by large Imperial paper-backed seal, handwritten 'franco tutto' denoting full pre-payment and '21 Sept 49' arrival note. The inside edges of the entire with some toning and minute tear and wear, nevertheless a sought after document.

Note: Maria Theresa (13 May 1717 – 29 November 1780) was ruler of the Habsburg dominions from 1740 until her death in 1780, and the only woman to hold the position in her own right. She was the Queen of Bohemia, her husband Francis I and her son Joseph II being Holy Roman Emperors. Maria Theresa ruled as an autocratic sovereign. She promulgated institutional, financial, medical, and educational reforms, promoted commerce and the development of agriculture, and reorganised Austria's military, all of which strengthened Austria's international standing.

- 7018 French Fieldpost during the War of Austrian Succession, 1742 (Oct 3): Entire from the military camp of Libeň nearby Prague to Montpellier, endorsed "de Prague" and struck by straight-line "ARM. DE BAV.E" (Lenain SA3 & SA5), charged upon arrival. A fine group from the 1742 year when Prague was occupied by French troops.
Note: The War of the Austrian Succession was a European conflict fought between 1740 and 1748, primarily in Central Europe. Its pretext was the right of Maria Theresa to succeed her father, Emperor Charles VI, as ruler of the Habsburg monarchy. France, Prussia, and Bavaria saw it as an opportunity to challenge Habsburg power. Prussia occupied the Austrian province of Silesia in 1740 and Prussian, Saxonian, Bavarian and French troops conquered Pilsen in October 1741 and even Prague in November 1741. However, in 1742 the fortune of war changed and Austrian victories in Austria, Bavaria, and Bohemia led finally to the siege of French and Bavarian troops in Prague. ✉ 400
- 7019 1743 (Jan 1): Entire letter sent by the French Field Post from Mühlbach, today Pomezí nad Ohří in the Bohemian Forest, situated between Cheb and the Bavarian border, written by a French officer and directed to the 'Marquis de Montplaisir à son hotel vue Notre-Dame à Nantes Bretagne France'. Struck by clear straight-line "ARMÉE DE BOHEME" handstamp (Votoček A.136 d-41 / Lenain SA4), rated '18' sols to be paid by the receiver. A rare and most attractive Field Post entire from that military conflict.
Note: The letter describes episodes during the 1742 siege of Prague, an extended blockade of the Bohemian capital during the War of Austrian Succession. French forces under the command of general Belle-Isle were besieged in the Bohemian capital. On 16 December 1742, Belle-Isle led 14,000 troops out of the city on a ten-day march to the French-held city of Cheb, reaching the Bohemian Forest four days later.

Note: In 1831/32 Vienna like all large European cities was reached by the Cholera plague, a gastrointestinal disease coming from India via Russia to Western Europe which deadened the sick within days to weeks. The pathogen was unknown until 1883 and the means against the Cholera were therefore pretty powerless. Mail coming from outside the Austrian Empire were cleaned, i.e. treated with hot steam in hospitals in a sanitary cordon within Austria around Vienna, but also in two sanitary cordons at the borders of the Empire. The present letter reaching the Empire from Prussia was therefore also cleaned, a rare route which is not known for disinfected mail in the literature. ✉

Despite some corner wear, an exceptional piece of the greatest rarity, not only in Bohemia, but also in European pre-philately with its high-quality four-colour lithographic print.

Note: A handwritten note on reverse gives Wilhelmina Maria Elisabeth Johanna Baptista Gräfin von Colloredo-Mansfeld (1804-1871), the widow of Fürst Rudolf Josef Anton Ferdinand Franz Leonhard Wilhelm Guido Kinsky von Vchinitz-Tettau (1802-1836) as sender. The Hohenmauth handstamp in blue is known since 1837, but the 6 kreuzer due speaks for a use after the rate change in 1843. The lithographic print is of excellent quality, the clarity and brightness of the print correspond well with the careful continuity without overlaps in all four colours. It is likely that the print was made for the exclusive use of the noble customer by a good but unknown printer in a small number of copies, of which only this one has apparently survived. It appears to be the only colour-decorated letter from the pre-stamp period. Its exceptionality certainly lies in the religious theme, its graphic expression and the corresponding choice of colors.

- 7032 Pre-philatelic decorative envelope in a Judaica correspondence 1849ca (April 16): Decorative envelope, written in Prague and struck with two-line "PRAG. / 16 Aprl." handstamp in red (Müller 1178n) and directed to Auscha / Ústěk. Full pre-payment shown by pen cross and handwritten "franco" on obverse, '3' (kreuzer) rate up to 10 Austrian miles noted on reverse. A most attractive decorative cover / Zierbrief with ornamental motifs on front and reverse, sent in the June 1848 rate presumably in the brief period until the introduction of stamps.
- Note: This decorative cover is directed to Benjamin Schwarz (1802-1886), belonging to an old Jewish family in Ústěk dealing with hop. The sender is mentioned on top of obverse as "C. Hennig", presumably Carl A. F. Hennig, an architecte from Prague active in the 1840s. The Jewish community chairman Benjamin Schwarz had decided in 1849 to renovate the synagogue. The cover shows the registration fee franked on obverse which is rarely seen and may be related to the fact, that the cover was first franked only for the third weight rate while the 6 kreuzer adhesive was added later on after the 9 kreuzer stamps had already been obliterated. The cover was opened in Vienna, but closed again, resealed, put back in the postal system and sent forward to Dornbach. For this second part of the journey it was taxed with '3' kreuzer, a rate which is not understandable for the describer. A wonderful piece of postal history Ferchenbauer = € 6'000.

Note: The receiver was Wilhelm von Haidinger (1795 Wien - 1871 Dornbach), the most famous Austrian geologist and mineralogist of his time. - 7127 Three colour franking to Spain; 1863 (June 28): Envelope from Kolin to a member of the house of Windisch-Graetz in Madrid, bearing a three-colour franking of 1861 3 kr. green (2), 10 kr. brown, and 15 kr. blue, four overall fine and fresh adhesives, well perforated and embossed, each tied by framed "KOLLIN 28 / 6" datestamp. "P.P." in red, French "AUTRICHE 30 JUIN 63 ERQUELINES 2" entry cds in blue, and Spanish "8 Rs" due in red alongside. The 10 kreuzer adhesive with minor irregularities at left, nevertheless a most attractive franking paying the single rate to the French - Spanish border with 13 Kr. for Austria and 18 kr. for France. Cert. Ferchenbauer (2014) Ferchenbauer = € 3'200+.
Note: In contrast to Austria and France, the letter was in Spain already in the second weight rate and was therefore taxed with eight, not four reales.
Provenance: Corinphila sale 191 (Nov 2014), lot 1013.

7129 1858 issue three colour franking to the United States; 1859 (Aug 3): Envelope from Karlsbad / Karlovy Vary to New York, endorsed "per Prussian closed mail & Liverpool", bearing a three colour franking of 1858 5 kr. light red, 10 kr. brown (2) and 15 kr. blue (3), all in type II, six fine and fresh adhesives, well perforated, tied by decent strikes of CARLSBAD single circle datestamp. "AACHEN 6 / 8" transit and "NEW YORK PAID AUG 22 30" arrival cds's, both in red alongside, reverse with "BODENBACH 5 / 8" transit cds in black. Total postage is calculated with 15 kr. for the GAPU and 54 kr. for the services beyond and noted on front. A most appealing cover to the United States, overpaid by 1 kreuzer. Cert. Ferchenbauer (1982).

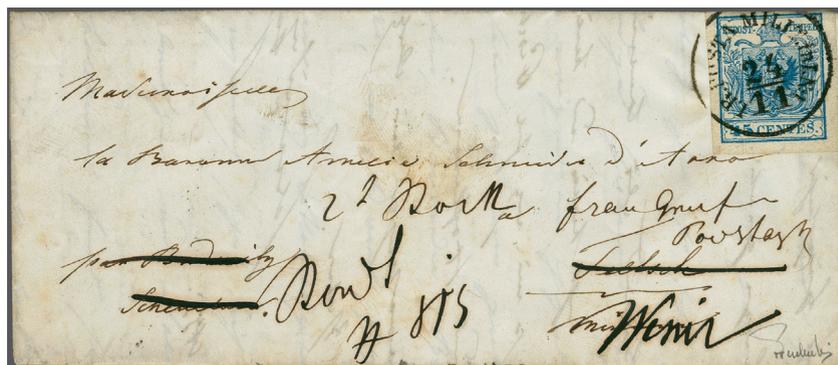

Note: The cover is directed to Ebenezer Alfred Johnson (1813-1891), professor of Greek and Latin Literature at the University of the City of New York (1839-1891). It was written by Messieurs Hottinguer & Cie, banquiers à Paris, at that time obviously at spa, following a handwritten note on reverse.

The Danish - Prussian War

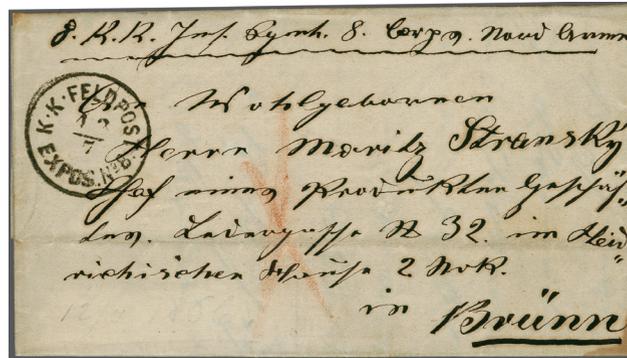

7131

- 7131 Danish War; 1864 (March 25): Registered Envelope from the troops in Kolding to Podiebrad / Poděbrady, endorsed "von Jütland", bearing 1863 10 kr. blue on reverse, torn during opening, and 15 kr. brown on front, both perf. 14, two fresh adhesives with good perforation and colours, with distinct embossing, tied by perfect "K.K. FELDPPOST N° 1" single circle Field Post datestamp (Müller 3451a = 600 points), "RECOM.:" handstamp alongside, reverse with SEMLIN transit datestamp. A most appealing cover and extremely rare Field Post cover despatched during the war of Austria and Prussia against Denmark at the F.P.O. at Kolding. The war commenced at 1 February 1864 and until 20 May 1864 the rates of the German-Austrian Postal Union had been valid, thereafter postal franchise came into force. Due to the short duration of this regulation of less than four months only few franked covers from the War against Denmark are known. A great item for the collector of Austrian Fieldpost and Austrian postal history in general. Cert. Ferchenbauer (2025) Ferchenbauer = RR.

- 7132 Austro-Prussian War; 1866 (July 12): Entire letter from the retreating troops in the fortress Olmütz / Olomouc to Brünn / Brno, endorsed "8. K.K. Inf. Regm Nord-Armé", written by a serviceman Johann Bielek on "12/7 866" in Olmütz and describing the battle of Königgrätz, struck by "K.K. FELDPPOST / EXPOS. N° 8 12 / 7" (Müller 3465 = 2'625 points), reverse with boxed "BRÜNN 4 - 8 .." arrival datestamp. An interesting entire with this very rare Field Post datestamp which was in use only from June - August 1866.

Note: The only and decisive battle on the northern theatre of the Austro-Prussian War was that of Königgrätz / Hradec Králové, lost by the Austrian troops on 3 July 1866. The defeated troops were retreating to the south-east meeting in Olmütz. The Prussian victory established its leading role in Northern Germany and with the unification in 1871 in Germany in general while Austria did not play any role any more in the new Germany after centuries of Austrian supremacy. Receiver of the entire is the entrepreneur Moritz Stransky from Brünn.
